HSCC Feature Article:

"Housing is on the Ballot and It's all Hands on Deck!"

Ballots for the November election will go out in the mail on October 10th – that's just a week away! Community members will be casting votes for some critical housing measures as well as for City Council and Board of Supervisor candidates and a new Santa Cruz City Mayor. The results of the upcoming election will impact affordable housing policy and production of future affordable housing projects. It's up to all of us to get informed, engage community members, and encourage people to get involved and vote for policies and candidates who will work to increase the supply of safe, stable affordable housing for everyone in Santa Cruz County.
